

SAMUEL ROSENBLUTH

Contact: samuel.rosenbluth@gmail.com
LinkedIn: www.linkedin.com/in/samuelrosenbluth
GitHub: <https://github.com/rosenbluth>

UX Designer

Prototyping * JavaScript * Node.js * Visual Design * Journey Mapping * User Stories
Team Collaboration * User Flows * Visual Media * HTML/CSS * Stakeholder Interviews * JSX * React.js

PROFILE

A self-motivated UX Designer with strong technical skills. A reliable professional years of experience and a passion for UX design. Possesses a track record of proven results and success using JavaScript, CSS, HTML, Node, Express, Angular.js, and Postgres. Responsible for the execution of projects from inception to completion. Very strong technical knowledge coupled with advanced prototyping skills. Seeking a UX position in which I can readily utilize the combination of previous experience, educational pursuits and strategic thinking abilities I have acquired in previous roles to a quality organization.

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Proficient in many technologies, including JavaScript, HTML, CSS, JS front end frameworks; such as, Angular.js and React.js; basic knowledge of Node using Express
- Proven ability to multi-task, with the ability to identify, isolate and resolve technical issues within set deadlines
- Exceptional leadership, interpersonal, organizational, verbal, and oral/written communication skills
- An ethical professional who facilitates a team approach to achieve organizational objectives and increase productivity with an exemplary work ethic demonstrating the highest levels of integrity
- Highly effective in building and managing key relationships as well as building rapport in interacting with different levels of management and teams in culturally diverse organizations
- Strong design skills as a graduate of Oregon State University along with 6+ years professional design experience
- Adept at juggling multiple priorities and working under pressure and time constraints to meet time-sensitive deadlines, utilizing strong organization of documents and resources
- Stays abreast of the latest technology trends in software and general trends in technology
- Effectively executed numerous development projects from the planning stages through completion, and maintained integrity through the creative process

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Cloud Construct- Boston, MA
User Experience Designer

April 2017 to July 2017

- Building high and low fidelity prototypes and wireframes for client approval
- Iteration through prototypes with the clients and team members in order to find a feasible solution and meet the client's needs
- UX/UI design for software and websites - working remotely while maintaining excellent communication
- Produced flash animations for the web
- Speaking with the clients to find out their needs as well and come up with efficient solutions to business problems
- Produced original ideas for new projects and assisted on proof of concept presentations
- Worked with Dev team and designers to produce original ideas for improving information architecture

Galvanize- Austin, TX
Fellow - Full Stack Web Development

June 2016 to January 2017

- Acquired web development skills for front end development as well as back end development
- Worked on a number of group projects that included collaboration using github

- Executed a number of projects using JavaScript(ES2016) specifically: Angular, Postgres, Express, Node.js
- Worked in a professional environment that included standard industry practice
- Produced original ideas for new projects and assisted on proof of concept presentations
- Created and maintained collaborative projects

Royal Caribbean International- Caribbean Sea
Broadcast Technician

Sept 2014 to April 2015

- Designed numerous logos and graphics using various design programs
- Produced original video content: shot, edited, and finalized a professional DVDs highlighting guest activities
- Maintained all broadcast equipment for the world's largest cruise ship
- Produced original content for on ship television programming, including weekly full length television specials
- Wrote, shot, edited and produced graphics for original onboard commercials
- Created and maintained several servers and playlist used onboard the ship
- Directed live and pre-recorded shows to be shown each day of the cruise
- Performed all master control operator duties
- Assisted in broadcast support for safety drills

Sinclair Broadcasting Group - Reno, NV
Creative Services/Production

Feb 2013 to August 2014

- Executed numerous projects from idea stages through post production
- Conceptualized many designs and implemented those designs using Photoshop, After Effects, Apple Motion, and several other video and graphic design programs.
- Took advantage of several years of professional media experience to manage the production of television commercials and graphics
- Managed projects for numerous clients through completion to ensure the effective advertising and business goals were met
- Created graphics, logos and full page graphic designs, created sidebars and lower thirds
- Posted content to the web in many different forms
- Wrote, shot, appeared in, and voiced commercials
- Assisted clients through all steps of storyboard planning; conceptualized commercial themes, wrote scripts, edited dozens of commercials and promotional materials
- Shot live and pre-recorded shows for FOX Reno and My21 TV
- Traveled on location to shoot commercials and promotional materials
- Acted as a liaison between the client and the station. Making ideas a reality while also communicating technical boundaries to the client

EDUCATION

Oregon State University, Corvallis, OR
B.S. in New Media Communications, June 2011

Galvanize, Austin, TX
Full Stack Immersive Web Development, January 2017